BAD FOR THE FAVORITES.

ONLY ONE FINISHES FIRST IN THE SIX AQUEDUCT RACES.

Grapple Defeats Sewell in the Woodmere Stakes-Zienap Wins from Right Royal.

New York, November 4.—Racing was marked this afternoon by a succession of head finishes such as have seldom been seen in one day. Nose and head finishes were the order and, in three of the it was the favorite that was nosed out. Explosion was the only winning choice of the after noon and she was forced to do her best to score over Woodlane, an outsider, while Bouquet, the choice, was third.

R. E. Watkins made no mistake when he bought Lad of Langden from W. W. Darden. Since Lad of Langden has been racing for Watkins, he has shown himself to be a smart one and today he out gamed Jack Atkin and won a six and a half fur longs dash. Jack Atkin was the choice and it is more than probable that he would have reversed the running with better luck at the post. Just at the rise of the barrier, both he and Keator went in the air and they were many lengths out of it in the early running. Dugan made up his ground with Jack Atkin in a rush and, as a result, the Schreiber sprinter tired badly when Lad of Langden hooked up with him in the stretch, but hung on gamely.

The feature of the day was the Woodmere, selling stake for three-year-olds and over at seven furlongs. Sewell was always an odds-on choice, but Dugan made the fatal mistake of using him up in the early stages and in the final drive Grapple was up in time to win by a short head. Frank Farrell and his friends at the last moment of betting sent in some heavy commissions on Grapple and won handsomely to the race

The tabulated history of the Woodmere Stakes is as follows

Zienap was a surprise of the afternoon. It was in the mile and a systemath handlean and Right in the mile and a sixteenth handicap, and Right Royal was always the choice, with Dolly Spanke the other one to receive support. Zienap had speed enough to make all the pace, and lasted long enough to beat out Right Royal, while Moonshine finished third. Dugan made another mistake in this race. He had the mount on Dolly Spanker and was in an excellent position on the inside through the stretch, when he was bumped by Smiling Tom. After the bumping Dugan took the Wilson horse back sharply and swung him over to the outside At the time Dolly Spanker had an excellent chance o win, but the move resulted in his finishing last. Old Brancas won the mile and five sixteenths race and after the running he pulled up very lame. He was as good as 3 to 1. Killiecrankie, after closely the pacemaker, finished in second place, while Red Friar, though he ran a very sour race,

If Brussel had been able to keep Miss Delaney beaten Alauda, which, under Dugan's good handling. was up in time. In the last race it was another case of the jockey. Woodlane would have won but when it came to the final fight Miller outrode Horner and landed Explosion in first place.

KANSAS CITY RACE TRACK AFFAIRS

Why the Receiver Was Appointed-Place To Be Kept Up.

Edward Corrigan left last night for Lexington and will divide his time until going south between the farm there and Louisville, where all his horses which will be sent to New Orleans, are quartered They are now being given their preliminary work "June" Collins on the Churchill Downs track and Collins will continue to train them for Mr Corrigan during the winter. Mr. Corrigan expects to ship south about the middle of the month. will not have a regular stable jockey this year, but will get riders for his horses from among the boys at the track. In speaking of the application made by him for the appointment of a receiver for the Kansas City track, Mr. Corrigan said the press dispatches hardly stated the facts of the matter. The receivership was granted for the purpose of permitting about $60,000 worth of the real estate, contiguous to the grounds, but not a part of or necessary for its use The track and buildings will remain be sold. intact and kept in good repair. The receiver appointed is James F. Halpin, a nephew of Mr. Con rigan, who represented a majority of the stockhold in the proceedings taken to conserve the property and eliminate some unnecessary expenses.

NEW POST FOR JUDGE BURKE.

Denver, Col., November 4.-Joseph J. Burke, well-known racing official and turf writer, will probably occupy the stand during the meeting of Denver-Overland Jockey Club at Denver next MERRY MAKER WINS STEEPLECHASE. BOOKMARER BOLES NOT BOOKING.

Closes Fast and Takes Pimlico Feature-Botanist Scores His Fourth Win.

Baltimore, Md., November 4.—Pimlico's track was fairly well dried out today, but was still wet next to the rail. The good going was on the outside, and the boys who swung wide when entering the stretch got the money in most cases

A very good card of seven races had been provided, but it was marred by scratches. The feature was the Greater Baltimore Steeplechase, and nine good steeplechasers started. Lester L. Hayman was a lukewarm favorite, with Pioneer and Merry Maker next in demand. Lester L. Hayman took the lead at once when the flag fell and, showing a high turn of speed and fencing beautifully, went through the field like a sure-enough winner. Old Merry Maker was on his good behavior and ran true always keeping within striking distance. last turn of the field Lester L. Hayman began to come back. When they struck the flat he was still leading, but Merry Maker, finishing with a rash, caught him at the sixteenth post. It was all over Merry Maker coming on to a handy victory. Lida odlands, with Mr. Taylor up, showed a good performance and finished third. showed much speed and furnished the contention for half the way but tired.

Botanist was dropped into a soft spot in the sec ond race and won off by himself. This was his fourth victory of the meeting. Oxford started here and ran into second place, but was evidently not quite ready. Botanist is a very good horse just now and probably the best sprinter at the track. James Boden will take him to the coast this winter.

Frank Herold attempted to pull off a good thing in the second race with Octoic, the colt being backed to win a barrel of money. Octoic, however, was good enough, the race going to Filbert, Hastings filly, which won all the way. Grenadier showed a good performance, coming from a loag way back and getting second place.

me dissatisfaction was expressed over the re sult of the last race, which was won by West High Jumper was the best horse here, and but for being badly fouled would have won. Com down the stretch West Over, High Jumper and Wilton Lackage were running close together on the outside, wth High Jumper in the middle. At the sixteenth post West Over bore over against High Jumper on one side and Wilton Lackage on the other and pinched him out. Christian claimed foul, but after some deliberation the stewards let the race stand

Mr. Gleniver is in hard luck with High Jumper Last week the horse was disqualified for a foul, this week he loses another race by being fouled. Starter Dade got busy in the steeplechase and fined McClain, Grantland and Hufham $25 each for cutting up at the post.

Miss Catesby and Woolspun will probably be added in the Walden tomorrow.

HOW SAIN WAS NOT SOLD.

Cincinnati, O., November 4.-When Barney was here recently he told the representative of Daily Racing Form how the Keene-Sain story originated. Mr. Schreiber says that a friend of Mr. Keene met him when he was at Lexington and asked him if he would sell Sain, and if he would name a price on the horse. Mr. Schreiber told the gentleman that he was willing to sell could get $150,000 for him. Permission was asked to submit it to Mr. Keene and Major Daingerfield. This request was granted and after ward a representative of Mr. Keene came here from New York to see Schreiber and went with him to Woodlands Farm, at Bridgeport, Mo inspect the stallion. "The deal was not closed, nor was it called off," says Schreiber, "and it is in exactly the same status as when I was asked to name a price."

There is no doubt that an offer was made for the horse and that he was inspected by the nego But there is a lot of doubt about the authority of the friend of Mr. Keene, who has been disclaimed by those who would have repre sented Mr. Keene had such a purchase been contemplated.

NEW GRANDSTAND FOR AQUEDUCT.

New York, November 4.-President P. J. Dwyer of both the Queens County and Brooklyn Jockey Clubs, plans to build a new grandstand and club house at Aqueduct during the winter, which, with the improvements put in this past summer, will make Aqueduct one of the best equipped racing plants in the country. It is said to be Mr. Dwyer's intention, eventually, to bring the Brooklyn Jockey Club to Aqueduct and abandon Gravesend as Many Rumors About Withdrawal of His Books at Aqueduct.

New York, November 4.-George Boles, one of the biggest layers at the eastern tracks was not in line at Aqueduct today and three other books which he had backed were also missing and this gave the gossips something to talk about. It was freely said that Boles had been given the tip to quit booking, but no one in authority would mit that such action had been taken. Boles him self said that he had decided to lay off for a while as he had a good season and wanted a rest. Or the other hand, John Cavanagh said that he had given no instructions to Boles, but would have nothing to say beyond that. Stewards of the Jockey Club, when spoken to on the subject, said that they knew on why Boles should not book if he so inclined, while the stewards of the Jamaica meeting, which closed Friday, said they had made no recommendation bearing on the case. But there was a belief that would not be shaken by any nials that it was not entirely at Boles' volition that he quit business. Before racing began he had a long and animated conversation with Eddie Burke the executive head of the Meropolitan Turf Asso ciation, but neither would say anything in reference to it.

Boles has been one of the biggest operators in the east for several years and throughout the current season he has maintained four books and he is said to be the largest winner among the layers and at Saratoga was before the stewards to explain an entry on his sheet for the Okenite race of un-pleasant memory. Boles explained that it was a lay-off for a client and it developed that he has pleasant memory. frequently accommodated plungers who wished to lay against a horse in preference to booking them. If any action has been taken against Boles, it evi-dently refers to his accommodating habit of laying horses for his clients. However, he can easily prove his statement that he withdrew of his own volition by drawing in tomorrow, but few expect to see him in line again at the meeting.

PREPARING FOR CHANGE OF SYSTEM.

Cincinnati, O., November 4.—Circulars have been received here by bookmakers and horsemen will spend the winter at New Orleans, explaining the system of betting which will be followed at both tracks this winter. The circulars are sent out by Arthur Elrod, who will be in charge of the betting rings. It is what Mr. Elrod calls the New York system, with the addition of a ticket. The high stool and hand slates, bags and trays used by bookmakers on the metropolitan tracks will be the outfit necessary. All of these will be furnished by Elrod. Bookmakers who intend to book at the tracks are requested in the circular to send their names to Mr. Elrod at New Orleans ten days Treasurer Hachmeister before the meeting opens. of the Latonia Jockey Club left this morning for New Orleans

Secretary Dillon left today for Wilmington, Del., in response to a telegram announcing the illness of a relative there.

SHEEPSHEAD BAY CHANGES.

New York, November 4.—The new mile three furlongs course, as well as the mile and five-sixteenths out of the chute, of the Coney Island Jockey Club at Sheepshead Bay, will surely be ready for the next meeting of the club in June No effort will be made this winter to disturb the turf course or steeplechase courses, being. But ultimately the turf course will be lengthened to one mile and a furlong and steeplechase course will be stretched out to the

The projected steeplechase course will cross the turf course a couple of times. It is inexpedient to fool with the grass and steeplechase course this fall because of the impossibility of getting a perfect sod for next season. The sod at Sheeps head Bay has been carefully and tediously devel oped. Frank Clark worked on it for years.

J. E. CUSHING'S SUIT POSTPONED.

Lexington, Ky., November 4.-J. E. Cushing's suit for $15,000 damages against the Louisville and Nashville Railroad will not be tried until next June It was docketed today for December, but when Mr. Cushing explained that he was going to Los Angeles to race all winter, postponement until June was The suit was brought because of the burning of five two-year-olds in a car at Paris,

JOCKEY HICKS SHOT AT LATONIA.

Cincinnati, O., November 4.-Jockey Jimmy Hicks, the colored rider, was shot by an unknown negro last night. The shooting took place at Main and Golding streets in Latonia, when Hicks asked by the stranger for money. When Hicks refused he fired two shots at him, one of them shattering a bone in the left shoulder. The man made his escape. Hicks was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital.

HILDRETH'S SECOND CALL ON MILLER.

Oakland, Cal., November 4.-S. C. Hildreth has econd call on the services of jockey Walter Miller t Oakland this winter, but in all races where Miller rides for his employer, T. H. Williams, Hildreth will put up Bedell, the jockey he brought with him from New York, if he can make the weight. Bedell was riding at New York at about 110 pounds.

TURF PRIZES OF ENGLAND.

LISTS OF THE CHIEF SIRES, OWNERS AND HORSES OF 1907.

Gallinule, W. Hall Walker and Lally Leaders in the Respective Divisions-Gossip of Persons and Events in Britain.

London, October 23 .- With the end of flat racing of 1907 in England drawing near, the latest statistics are not likely to be greatly affected, and Gallinule's position as the leading sire of the year is firmly established. At latest advices he was well in advance of his nearest competitor, Orme, but between the latter, Desmond and St. Frusquin there was a close fight for second place, and the results of the Newmarket Houghton meeting may have put Orme back to fourth place in the list. Gallinule owes supremacy mainly to the three-year-old Slieve Gallion, and the two-year-old White Eagle, the former having won $38,525 and the latter $38,355. Orme's best contributor was bound to be the Derby inner, Orby, with $33,575, while Desmond's is The White Knight, with $32,175, and St. Frusquin's Lesbia, with $40,332. Gallinule's competitor of last year, Isinglass, is well down in the list, but is a

MANY HORSEMEN LEAVE LATONIA

"Red" Walker and T. H. Rvan Go to Coast-Joplin Ships to New Orleans.

Cincinnati, O., November 4.-Lack of cars to transport the stock will keep the majority of horsemen southward bound at Latonia for several longer. The contingent aiming to race at Oakland, which meeting begins next Saturday, are now fully on their way. The late ones to leave for that point were "Red" Walker and T. H. Ryan. Barney Schreiber's string, in charge of John Powers. for California yesterday via St. Louis, where additions will be made. R. L. Thomas' horses will go to Lexington, where, after a short sojourn, they will be shipped to the new racing plant now under construction at Los Angeles. Jockey Shilling will, after a brief visit to his home in Texas, rejoin the Thomas stable on the coast. In his contract it is stipulated that he must not ride on any track in New Orleans. The death of Shilling's brother in race at the Fair Grounds is responsible for Shilling's mother insisting on the clause being inserted in the contract.

W. O. Joplin's horses and those owned by A. F. Mathews in his charge, were shipped today to New Orleans. Jockey C. Koerner, who seems to have regained his best riding form, will spend several weeks with his younger brother, T. Koerner, at his mother's home in Louisville before rejoining the stable

Those of the bookmaking brigade that will tempt

the coast via Chicago. In the list are Charles Bowman, who is reported the biggest loser at the meeting, Lee Campbell and Howard Moore.

Fred Cook and his retinue of clerks will spend the time intervening prior to the opening of the New Orleans tracks at his farm in Illinois.

"I will positively be in New Orleans and start the horses for the first week of the City Park meet-ing," said Jake Holtman before leaving for Zanesville, Ohio, "if the Arcadia track, near Los Angeles, is not completed before December 1.

Seymour Beutler, for which Barney Schreiber re-fused $12,000 during the last Kenilworth meeting. has been traded to Herman Brandt for Preen and a money consideration.

PLANS FOR KENTUCKY RACING.

Cincinnati, O., November 4.-When Colonel Milton Young, of the McGrathiana Stud, and a member of the State Racing Commission, was here a few days ago, he made it clear to the writer that the commission intends to conserve the best interests of racing in Kentucky. The commission would, of course, like to see the sport go along continuously throughout the summer at Lexington Louisville and Latonia, if conditions and the popu lations of these various cities warranted it. But the commission realizes that Lexington, Louisville and Latonia, the latter track drawing its patron age from Cincinnati, can only support limited racing. Therefore dates another year will be held close to the requirements just as they have been this se

Colonel Young expressed himself as of the opin ion that the Kentucky law could not be very greatly improved upon, and that all states in the where thoroughbred sport has a foothold, would sooner or later have to adopt a similar law, or one planned in accordance with the New York law, after which the Kentucky law was in a measure patterned. Of course the race tracks and the horsemen object to some of the restricwhich the commission has placed on the sport in the last year. But the race tracks and the horsemen are alike short-sighted and likely to object to almost anything that stands in the way of immediate profits. A majority of the members of the commission are breeders and horsemen they are far-sighted enough not to let the immediate future obscure the possibilities of years

POSEIDON'S DOUBLE TRIUMPH.

In Australia last year the three-year-old colt Poseidon, by Positano-Jacinth, won the Caulfield Cup at Melbourne and followed this up by subse quently winning the Melbourne Cup, the greatest He carried nd richest of all Australian races. 105 pounds in the Caulfield Cup and 104 in the Melbourne Cup. At the recent Flemington meeting he won the Caulfield Cup again and had up 129 oounds this time. News of his second triumph led "Vigilant" to say in the London Sportsman:

"I see Poseidon has again won Cup, this time carrying 9st, 3lb. He must be a really great horse, and his trainer, Isaac Earnshaw, is to be congratulated on having got him back again into form, after he had gone stale from over racing last season. It was thought at time that the son of Positano and Jacinth had seen his best day, and I know that Mr. Galstaun, who was willing to have given as much as $30,000 for him, was advised not to touch him at any price, but a letter I recently received from Earnshaw informed me that Poseidon would pull out again all right, and now we know that he has done so. Positano, as most of us know, is a St. Simon horse. Jacinth, the dam of Poseidon, is by Martini Henry, son of Musket and Sylvia, by Fish erman. It looks as though Poseidon was in for another great season, unless indeed Dividend again proves too much for him in the three-mile races.'

I understand that it is by no means certain that Velocity could not be trained next year if it were so desired. At all events, he is not likely to change hands at less than $125,000, and I hardly think a buyer at that price will come forward. Worse horses have been sold for more money, but fashion is despotic in these matters, and the fact of Ve-locity being by Speed, dam by Baliol, stops the idea of business on the first blush. It is useless to explain that Speed is one of the very best-looking horses ever sired by Hampton, and that Baliol was The man who three parts brother to Doncaster. thinks of giving sensational prices wants more reclame than that for his money, and so I expect Velocity will remain in his present ownership unless far different ideas as to his value are lopted. Individually he may be, and probably is, good deal better horse than Diamond Jubilee, but he could not go to South America with any thing like the same "boom" as a triple crown winner, own brother to Persimmon, and bought from the king. Therein lies the secret of these Argentine will undoubtedly recoup the outlay on their sire before ever they have seen a race course, and we know from experience here that they are likely to run well. Apropos, Senor Ignacio Correas, the owner of Diamond Jubilee, has had another extraordinary sale of his young two-year-olds, thirty-three averaging $5,000 each. Details appear below, and it will be seen that the best of the youngsters are by old Neapolis, who died within a day or so of the sale. He was one of the most successful sires ever imported to that country, as he well might be, being a son of Springfield and Napoli (dam of Orvieto and Laveno), by Macaroni out of Sunshine. Senor Correas will be a fortunate man if Diamond Jubilee does better for him than Neapolis did. I saw both these horses in spring of this year and Neapolis was then looking fresh and well, not at all like dying for several years to come, but I suppose he must have succumbed to an attack of inflammation or feverit certainly cannot have been senile decay.

With reference to the exportation of the brilliantly speedy Xeny to Australia, it has been pointed out that his Flying Dutchman blood would well with that of Galopin and St. Simon and, further, it is obvious that his abundance of Partisan blood would render him a suitable mate for mares of the Queen Mary family. It is to be noted, in addition, that Marksman, maternal grandsire of Pastisson, is a son of Dundee, sire of Fickle the granddam of the great Australian sire, Lochiel course, is by Prince Charlie, by Blair It is apparent there is another line here as to the future mating of Xeny. On further study ing the pedigree of Marksman it will be observed that it bears much resemblance to that of Thistle (dam of Common and Throstle), and it is clear that mares of Sterling or Lord Clifden blood would certainly also "nick" well with Xeny. As a proof that we are on the right track, we have Hanoi II. (the best French winning son of Pastisson, who captured the Grand Prix de la Ville de Nice of $25,000, over three miles and one furlong this season), out of Alice Hampton, by Royal Hampton, out of Aida, by Buccaneer. From the foregoing it is plain that Xeny will not be difficult to mate properly, and there can be no doubt as to his a stallion.

The Brighton race course is owned by the town council of the borough, and the "Sussex Daily News" today publishes the full text of a letter from the chairman of the race stand lessees showing that $10,455 has been paid the council as profits of the two race meetings held this year. Reference is made to the improvement in the number and quality of the horses entered, and a computation made that from 50,000 to 60,000 people now attend the Brighton races. The meeting is an open one and the letter states that the trustees are de termined to secure perfect freedom of access for all

Father Blind was sold at Newbury the other day for $4,050. He is in build the anthithesis of what, up to a few years ago, used to be regarded as the type of a stayer. "They must be long and low," our grandfathers used to say, "Give me a light fleshed, little horse with plenty of heart room, and I do not care how short his back is or how long his egs are," says the present day trainer. Father Blind reminds one of a clotheshorse—a tall, lean, narrow-gutted, weak-looking creature, but there that heart room, and he showed at Epsom that the new theory has much in it.

Lord Douglas Compton has purchased Marcris tine from Mr. R. Wootton, and this smart staying mare will shortly be shipped for South Africa.

Lochiel, the Australian sire, has headed the winning sires' list in 1897-1898, 1899-1900, 1901-1902, 1904-1905, 1905-1906, and was second in 1898-1899. His stock in Australia have won 1,100 races of a total value of £136,000.

When it was known that jockey G. McCall's service with Mr. Leopold de Rothschild had come to an end, the jockey was offered a retainer for next year by one of the leading Newmarket stables, but as the negotiations are still taking place, it is better to say no more at present. Lynham goes to France (where, by the way, he was born), to take the place of J. Reiff, who migrates to Germany, as does O'Connor, and Cormack returns to the States.

A two-year-old half-brother to the English St. Leger winner, Wool Winder, was landed in Melourne on September 16 from England by the Afric. He is by the Derby winner Ayrshire (son of Hamp ton), out of St. Windeline, by St. Simon, out of Queen of the Spring, by Springfield, which is very attractive breeding. He was purchased in England by Mr. J. E. Stanley and three other horses of his were taken out by the Afric: Colt, 2, by Sidus (son of St. Simon), out of Silica, by Sterling, out of Siluria, by Lord Clifden; filly, 3, by Aurum, out of Dainty Lady, by Surefoot, out of Amondell, by Scottish Chief, out of Paraffin, by Blair Athol, and filly, 3, by Desmond (son of St. Simon), out of Tonia, by Hampton, out of Photinia, by Uncas. quartetie will probably in due course be put into training at Flemington.

The annual report of the Victorian (Australian) Amateur Turf Club shows that the club has paid away in stakes for the past season $116,375. Since the foundation of the club in 1875 the money added to stakes and paid away by the club amounts to Notwithstanding the amount given in stakes, improvements, and taxes, the assets now exceed the liabilities by $63,215, an increase of A profit was made on every racing fixture brought off during the year.

PECULIARITIES OF FRENCH BETTING.

Long Odds and Much Volume Shown by the Pari-Mutuel.

The Paris correspondent of the London Sporting Life discourses on the peculiarities of French betentertainingly as follows under date of October 21:

"We had yesterday one of the most extraordinary day's racing at Longchamps that I can remember. We were thankful in the first place that it did not rain, for I do not think we have had a dry racing day all this month. In the opening race, we had a horse finishing second which brought in 22 to 1 for a place at the pari-mutuel. A thing of this kind emphasizes the great difference that is developing between racing in England and in France. The Jockey Club here passed a resolution a little while back which practically compels owners to have their horses ridden out for a place, and there is often more place betting than for the actual winner. would be an impossibility to get 20 to 1 about a horse for a place in a two-year-old selling race in England. Had Gallinule won, her winning price would have been 67 to 1. An English visitor who was present got me to explain to him the operations of the pari-mutuel on this race, and as he expressed great surprise, I take it that a similar explanation will be instructive to many of your readers. He tells me that the prices to be obtained here, notwithstanding the 8 per cent. that is de ducted from all investments, are so tempting that he does not wonder at the public flocking to the race courses. There were fourteen runners for the Prix des Champs Elysees. The winner, Copella, started at 3 to 1, and the starting prices returned against the other runners are as follows: 67 to 1 Gallinula, 18 to 1 Embuscade, 131 to 1 Laboureur, 23 to 2 Dieppe, 13 to 1 Blue Cap. to 2 Hessione, 54 to 1 Ascot, 60 to 1 Vista Al legra, 4 to 1 Benzai, 21 to 1 Aberdeen, 30 to 1 Rafia, 13 to 1 Brive and 30 to 1 Vorutza. Comon any similar race in England. No doubt many whatever, but the same may be said about horses more than 10 or 12 to 1. "We had also on Sunday's program the Prix de la Faisanderie, for which there were seven runners, two of them being in M. de Bremont' stable, and these were consequently coupled in the betting, which was extraordinarily close. Seldom do we see such a return as the following: 69 to 20 84 to 20 M. de Bremont's pair, 89 to 20 Elysee (the winner), 98 to 20 Vespery, 101 to 20 everything out, so as to give the quotations in round figures, twenty francs representing a golden Louis, this making comparisons easier. It can be turn-over at the pari-mutuels on Sunday was over $400,000, so that the percentage for distribution among employes, charities, and for premiums to breeders, was over $30,000. Is it any wonder that the state gives such encouragement to racing and that owners and breeders find the game much more profitable here than in England? On the other hand, owners who bet heavily have not many opportunities for bringing off a big coup, and that is why some of them prefer to send a horse over to your side when they think they have a "good thing," for, if they put $5,000 on at the mutuels. and their friends followed suit, it would soon bring the horse to a short price. The present system in France is entirely in favor of the small Notwithstanding the stringency of the backer. laws, and the vigilance of the police, a tremendous amount of starting price betting still goes on in France, away from the race courses, and there are agents frequenting most of the cafes who take commissions. I have been told of one layer who has his agents in most of the provincial towns and he often takes $20,000 or $25,000 a day. sum pays no commission and naturally the race course societies, as well as the legal authorities, are anxious to suppress this kind of business; but, betting in England, it is likely to continue for all time."

UNCLE DOING WELL AT OAKLAND.

San Francisco, Cal., November 4.-S. C. Hildreth is credited with the statement that he will start Uncle in the Opening Handicap at Oakland as a compliment to the New California Jockey Club and the people of California, who are much more anxious to see the colt than Hildreth is to start him. Uncle is now the chief attraction in the shape of horseflesh at Oakland since Firestone has been sen to Brentwood Stock Farm for the winter. He would probably have the stellar part of the show if the two were to appear, as Firestone has been seen on the Emeryville track in some of his best races while Uncle comes to the coast for the first time as the $30,000 near-champion of the eastern season, the matchless Colin being his only superior. Uncle will not start in many races at Oakland this winter if owner Hildreth follows the plans he has laid out for the colt. Montgomery, Tony Faust, Vails, Rapid Water, Meelick and Guiding Star will be the horses Hildreth will rely upon to carry his colors in the big events to which they have been nominated, while Uncle will be reserved for his eastern stake engagements, with only racing enough to help him grow and fill out.

"Uncle is entered in nearly $150,000 worth of stake engagements in the east next summer," says Mr. Hildreth. "He is in the Realization and all the other important stakes that have already closed, and will be entered in the other big events, in cluding the Brooklyn and the Suburban. I would foolish, under the circumstances, to take chance on breaking him down this winter. start him in the Opening Handicap it will be out of compliment to the Jockey Club and the people vicinity who, of course, are anxious to the colt, and not because I must depend on him. For the reasons I have suggested, Uncle will be raced very little this winter."

sent out from the west two weeks ago that Ben McClain, one of the best jockeys riding at the Seattle and Spokane meetings, was killed in a race at Lewiston, Idaho, was refuted by the boy's employer, William Caine, upon his return from that point to Oakland. Mr. Caine left McClain in St. Joseph's Hospital at Lewiston, where he is recovering from the injuries from which he was first reported to have died. He sustained a broken leg, several fractured ribs and some scalp wounds when his mount fell over a hound which attempted to run across the track. It will be some time before McClain will be able to resume riding.

H. E. Rowell has sold Altanero to Thomas Proctor at private sale. Proctor will race the Altamax Pienie colt at Oakland.

H. I. Wilson, president of the Butte Jockey Club, who raced Gemmell and Golden Wine at that track last summer, has sent them to Oakland, where they will race this winter.

BEN BRUSH A STAR PERFORMER.

Bramble's Fast Son Won Over $65,000 in Three Seasons.

Ben Brush was one of the star racers of a dozer years back and since his retirement from the track has been a decidedly successful sire at James R. Keene's Castleton Stud. His two-year-old career began at Louisville May 7, 1895, when he beat Captive, Concession and two other youngsters purse at five furlongs. A week later he won the Cadet Stakes at the same track in heavy going, defeating Del Coronado, Ben Eder and three more at four and a half furlongs. His next start was for the Harold Stakes at Latonia June 6, which he won, carrying 121 pounds, from Nimrod, 111; The Dragon, 111, Semper Ego, 113, Ramiro, 113 and Fasig, 110, all good colts. Then he won the Emerald Stakes at Oakley, defeating Ramiro, Ben Holladay and two more and the Diamond Stakes, beating Ben Eder, Prince Lief, The Dragon and Sir Vas-In all these races he was the property "Brown Dick." Taken east after the close of the Oakley meeting, he won a purse at Sheepshead Bay and the Holly Handicap at Gravesend and was the bought by M. F. Dwyer. For the latter he won six races in succession, the Prospect Handicap at Gravesend, the Nursery Stakes, Albany Stakes and Champagne Stakes at Morris Park and two purses

His first start as a three-year-old was for the struggle with Ben Eder, with Semper Ego third, in Then, in the Schulte Stakes, at a ran a dead heat with the crack filly. Lady Inez and defeated her in the run-off. Travelling to Oak ley, he ran third to Prince Lief and Ben Eder in Oakley Derby, but revenged himself by feating Prince Lief, Loki and Ramiro in the Buck eye Stakes, running a mile and an eighth in 1:53 with 122 pounds up. At St. Louis, June 20, 127 pounds each, he ran second to Prince Lief for the $20,000 National Derby which was transferred from Hawthorne to the St. Louis Fair Grounds because of the temporary suppression of racing in Chicago. Prince Lief only won by a nose. third, with Ramiro, Argentina II., Don Carillo and It was a great race and Captive unplaced. time for a mile and a half, 2:34, was never equalled over a St. Louis track.
